

five states outside of our own.

Quong Lee and Gar Fat, two of Ypsilanti's Chinamen, have been charged in the Wayne Circuit court with illegal residence in this country. Quong Lee has a certificate of residence under the act of 1892, but not one under that of 1893. Gar Fat claims to have been born in San Francisco and later to have spent ten years in China. He has been given till October 20 to procure the necessary evidence from China.
—Ypsilantian.

H. M. Russell last Saturday handed